Social Work Education & Practice

A presentation of research on 2SLGBTQ+ competency of BSW students at the University of Regina

by Emily Ritenburg

Emily Ritenburg is a fourth-year BSW student at the University of Regina, and former practicum student of UR Pride Centre. Emily presented this research at Congress 2018 where she won the Outstanding Student Proposal Award from CASWE-ACFTS.

Following the presentation, join us for a panel of queer-identified social workers on what it means to queer our practice with

Suzy Yim, Fritz Pino & Jacq Brasseur
