

Job name: Counsellor: Registered Psychologist or Master's Prepared Clinical Social Worker
Location: Ehrlo Counseling Services, Regina
Contact names and telephone #: Natasha Schoenroth @ 306-751-2466
Closing date: December 11, 2017 @ 6:00 pm
Additional information: Contract position

Ehrlo Counselling Services, a Ranch Ehrlo Society community service, which provides a wide variety of intervention, consultation and counselling services, is currently seeking a Counsellor: Registered Psychologist or Clinical Social Worker. The mandate of Ehrlo Counselling is to provide community based intervention and therefore works with a variety of Employee Family Assistance Program (EFAP) organizations and other community agencies in providing counselling services.

The ideal candidate will have experience in individual, group and couples counselling and a strong working knowledge of evidence based interventions. Competencies in child, adolescent, adult and couples counselling is preferred.

Qualifications and Experience:

- Fully or provisionally registered with Authorized Practice Endorsement and in good standing with the Saskatchewan College of Psychologists, or Masters in Social Work registered with the Saskatchewan Association of Social Workers.
- Strong assessment (observation and clinical interviewing) and counselling skills.
- Sound theoretical understanding and application of various evidenced-based clinical interventions.
- Exceptional individual, family, and group counseling skills.
- Knowledge of and sensitivity in working with culturally diverse clients.
- Knowledge of professional ethics related to clinical counselling.
- Excellent ability to uphold file standards, write succinct and effective reports.
- Clinical experience is preferred.
- Professional liability insurance coverage is required.

Apply by December 11, 2017 by completing the on-line application and submitting your resume and cover letter on to www.ehrlo.com/careers

Ranch Ehrlo has been selected as one of Saskatchewan's Top Employers for 2017 and we offer competitive wages, benefits and pension plan.