

To all Social Work students and students interested in Social Work!

To celebrate Social Work Week in Saskatchewan (March 19-25), the Student Success Centre in collaboration with the Saskatchewan Association of Social Workers (SASW) along with SWSS, are pleased to offer (one-time this semester only) a special presentation and Q&A Panel Session featuring a number of Regina-based social workers and administrators from SASW. This session will happen on Thursday March 23rd, 6:30pm-7:30pm in ED 315. Seating is limited and you need to register to attend (see instructions below).

These Social Workers will cover several areas including making the most of your time as an undergrad, lessons learned as a social worker and stories on how to flourish and succeed as a social worker. Our panel features professionals ranging from recent grads to 20+ year social workers who are excited to share their stories and lessons learned with you. Representatives from SASW will also discuss student membership, benefits of membership and be on hand to provide additional information about becoming an RSW. Our panelists have a wide variety of experiences including the following areas: mental health & Addictions, working with Mobile Crisis, working in the Health District, working in child protection and working with youth.

This interactive session will definitely be a great networking opportunity for all attendees.
