

Greetings SASW Members! Welcome to our February 2022 E-Newsletter. As we move into March, we celebrate National Social Work Month, along with Social Work Week in Saskatchewan beginning on March 20. The National theme this year is In Critical Demand – Social Work is Essential. A copy of the poster is found here

Innovative Practice – The Men’s Healthy Relationship Culture Camp

In the community of Hatchet Lake First Nation, the issue of intimate partner violence is a significant and multi-layered concern. Read more>>

The month of February is Black History Month. In celebration, is a poem “From a Black Woman to Black Kids”, Dolapo Onidare, RSW

Read more>>

Recognize a Colleague - Nominations for the SASW Distinguished Service Award due March 15

Consider a colleague or work group who have provided exceptional service and nominate them for the SASW Distinguished Service Award. Here is the link to the information on how to nominate: SASW Distinguished Service Award

President’s Message – Erin Beckwell, MSW, RSW

As I sit down to write my final President’s message, I find myself reflecting on the surreal reality that my term as President is soon coming to an end.

Read more>>

A Message from the Executive Director
Karen Wasylenska, MSW, RSW

I don’t think any of us would have thought two years ago that we would be where we are today.

Read more>>

From the Kitchen of the Registrar
Fay Schuster, MSW, RSW

Why do we have to do CPE?
I know the last two years have been a challenge for many members to find the time and energy to think about and complete the CPE hours.

Read more>>

From the Desk of the Dean of Social Work
Dr. Cathy Rocke, MSW, PhD

Greetings from the University of Regina, Faculty of Social Work - who could have imagined at the beginning of the pandemic that it would last 2 years!

Read more>>

A Frequently Asked Question

Does my SASW license allow me to provide virtual services to clients who live outside Saskatchewan?

Read more>>

Social Workers Designated in The Victims of Interpersonal Violence Act and recent legislative amendments.

There are changes to documentation from a “Professional Person”
You can read the letter received from Integrated Justice Services, Community Safety and Well-Being that outlines the change.

Read more>>

Winter 2022 In- Person and Live Virtual Workshops

CTRI – CRISIS & TRAUMA RESOURCE INSTITUTE Read more>>